I. Overview and Objective

Tuition Fee Reimbursement is a benefit offered by RealPage Philippines Inc. to support the continued development of employees through education or the acquisition of additional skills related to their current role.

II. Scope

This procedure applies to full-time employees of RealPage Philippines Inc. who have completed at least six months of continuous service.

III. Responsibilities

Employee

- Secures required pre-approval before enrolling in a course.
- Submits the required supporting documents following completion of the course or training.

Operations Management / Local Senior Leader

- Reviews and pre-approves the employee's application.
- Provides the required Local Senior Leader approval.

HR – Total Rewards Director

- Reviews and approves the employee's request for Tuition Fee Reimbursement.
- Reviews submitted documents and determines the applicable reimbursement amount based on eligibility.

HR – Total Rewards Admin

- Processes approved tuition fee reimbursement requests.
- Forwards approved requests to Finance for payment processing.

Finance

- Confirms budget availability.
- Processes approved Tuition Fee Reimbursement payments through the applicable Request for Payment process.
- Credits the approved reimbursement amount to the employee's payroll account.

IV. Definition of Terms

Term	Definition
Request for Tuition Reimbursement Form (RTRF)	Form used to apply for Tuition Fee Reimbursement.
HR – Total Rewards	Includes the Total Rewards Director, identified in this procedure as the final reimbursement approver, and the Total Rewards Admin, identified as the reimbursement processor.
Local Senior Leader	Local senior leader of a business unit; identified as the first-level approver.
Academic Fees	Payments for registration, tuition, books, online courses, and other eligible fees.
Academic Completion Documents	Certified transcript of records, grade slip, or other documentation used to certify course completion, together with receipts or other evidence confirming payment for tuition, books, online courses, or other applicable educational costs.
Finance	Function responsible for confirming budget availability and processing Tuition Fee Reimbursement requests endorsed by HR – Total Rewards.

V. Guidelines

- All courses must be pre-approved by the department head and Finance for budget availability.
- The employee must have no corrective action within the 90 days immediately preceding the application.
- HR may approve or disapprove an application based on:
 - applicability to the employee's current function;
 - applicability to other functions within the Company to which the employee has a reasonable expectation of advancing;
 - budget constraints;
 - acceptability of the school or educational provider; and
 - cost effectiveness of the program compared with other colleges or universities.
- The maximum reimbursement an employee may receive in a calendar year is PHP 40,000.
- No more than two courses per term may be approved.
- Employees receiving scholarships, grants, educational assistance through other programs, and/or government benefits will be reimbursed only for the difference between those benefits and the actual eligible educational costs incurred.
- Following completion of the course or training, the employee must submit the required documentation to Human Resources – Total Rewards within 30 days from the end of the term:
 1. Academic Completion Documents;
 2. Local Senior Leader email approval; and
 3. Request for Tuition Reimbursement Form (RTRF).
- Valid reimbursements will be credited to the employee's payroll account within 60 calendar days after submission.
