Overview

Talent Review aims to identify and develop high performers, potential leaders, and critical roles to ensure continuity of leadership and organizational knowledge. Talent review includes talent assessments, succession planning, goal alignment, and development plans.

At RealPage we use UKG to facilitate our talent review process.

Talent Factor Assessment

Log into UKG

- My Team > Talent Management > Talent Dashboard

The screenshot displays the REALPAGE Talent Dashboard. The top navigation bar includes a search bar and icons for home, user, team, and settings. The left sidebar lists various management tools, with 'Talent Dashboard' selected under the 'Talent Management' section. The main dashboard area features a grid of metrics: Reviews (0 Outstanding), Leadership Actions (0 Outstanding), Goals (6 Average per Employee), Learning (0 Average per Employee), Succession Plans (0 Total), and Development Plans (6 Outstanding). Below the metrics is a search bar with 'Find by Last name' and 'Starts With' filters. The main content area shows a list of employees with a star icon on the right side of each card, indicating the 'Talent Factor' assessment.

Current Performance Level

Managers set this value as the current overall performance measure for an employee. This does not change the last review rating for the employee. The employee's previous completed performance review is available for review prior to filling out this section.

- Low: Performance does not fully meet expectations on a consistent basis; improvement is needed.
- Medium: Performance fully meets and occasionally exceeds expectations
- High: Performance clearly and consistently exceeds expectations

The notes section is for additional comments regarding the employees' performance.

TALENT REVIEW: IDENTIFYING TALENT

9-BOX GRID: DEFINITIONS

	Low Performance	Medium Performance	High Performance
High Potential	Box 5: Untapped Talent ➤ Develop in current role/reassign Individual may be new to the role and hasn't time to demonstrate performance. Coach and develop to higher performance or consider to a better matched role in time to retain.	Box 2: Growth Employee ➤ Stretch/develop Still room for maximizing performance in current role, increase the challenge and scope of role. High potential for the future.	Box 1: Top Talent ➤ Prepare for next roles Has mastered current role and is ready (anticipating) a new challenge/significant stretch. Retention is critical.
Medium Potential	Box 8: Mismatch ➤ Improve in current role Evaluate the factors contributing to low performance and implement strategies for improvement. Explore better opportunities for alignment.	Box 6: Core Employee ➤ Focused development Develop to reach higher level of performance in current role. Has some potential for increased stretch.	Box 3: High Impact ➤ Stretch/develop High performer and a good candidate for growth. Focus on developing skills and provide stretch opportunities that will allow them to take on more scope/scale in the future.
Low Potential	Box 9: Under Performer ➤ Develop in current role or reassign Focus on significant performance improvement or moving to a more suitable role. Should not be left unaddressed.	Box 7: Effective employee ➤ Observe/improve in current role Consistent contributor, but limited potential. Could this person thrive in a more suitable role.	Box 4: Trusted Talent ➤ Motivate A strong performer but unlikely to move to a higher-level role. Engagement will be important for continued motivation/retention.
