I. Overview and Objective

The SSS maternity benefit is a government-mandated benefit intended to protect and promote the rights and welfare of working women. The benefit provides eligible female employees with leave to support recovery, health and wellness, and maternal responsibilities.

This procedure defines the internal process for administering the SSS maternity benefit within RealPage Philippines Inc.

II. Scope

This procedure describes the end-to-end internal process for female employees and responsible stakeholders when an employee applies for and receives the SSS maternity benefit.

It applies to RealPage Philippines female employees and Total Rewards, HR, Finance, and Payroll stakeholders involved in maternity-benefit administration.

III. Roles and Responsibilities

1. Employee

The employee is responsible for:

- Notifying the employer of her pregnancy and expected date of childbirth.
- Providing the forms and supporting documentation required by SSS and the employer.
- Completing applicable maternity-benefit documentation.

2. Total Rewards Team

The Total Rewards Team is responsible for:

- Receiving and validating required forms and supporting documents.
- Completing the maternity notification process.
- Reporting the maternity notification through the SSS system.
- Computing the SSS benefit due to the employee.
- Preparing and submitting the required Request for Payment and supporting documents.
- Coordinating with Finance & Payroll for processing of the benefit.
- Submitting applicable documentation to SSS for reimbursement.

3. Total Rewards Leader

The Total Rewards leader is responsible for reviewing and approving the Request for Payment associated with maternity-benefit processing.

4. Finance & Payroll Team

The Finance and Payroll Team are responsible for processing the advance payment of the SSS maternity benefit and applicable salary differential respectively after receiving the endorsed and approved documentation from Total Rewards Team.

IV. Definition of Terms

VI. Guidelines

1. Pregnancy Notification

Upon confirmation of pregnancy, the employee shall inform the employer of the pregnancy and expected date of childbirth.

2. Eligibility

To be eligible for the benefit, the employee should have at least three monthly contributions within the 12-month period immediately preceding the semester of childbirth, miscarriage, or emergency termination of pregnancy.

3. Maternity Leave Benefit

The maternity benefit is a paid leave benefit with full pay for the following durations:

- One hundred five (105) days for live childbirth, regardless of type of delivery.
- An additional fifteen (15) days of paid leave if the employee qualifies as a solo parent.
- Sixty (60) days of paid leave for miscarriage and emergency termination of pregnancy, including stillbirth.
- An additional thirty (30) days of unpaid leave may be availed where the employee has notified the employer and managers within a reasonable period or at least 45 days before the end of the maternity leave originally filed.
- The employee may file for maternity leave as early as 45 days before the expected date of delivery.

4. Full Pay and Salary Differential

Full pay refers to the remuneration or earnings paid by an employer to a worker for services rendered on normal working days and hours.

The existing procedure defines the calculation as:

Full Pay = SSS Benefit + Employer Salary Differential

The SSS portion is computed based on the employee's average daily salary credit.

The existing procedure also states that the salary differential is non-taxable and that applicable statutory contributions shall be deducted.

5. Allocation of Maternity Leave

The employee may allocate up to seven (7) days of the maternity benefit to the child's father, whether or not the father is married to the employee, or alternate caregiver

In the event of the death, absence, or incapacity of the child's father, the employee may allocate the applicable leave to an alternate caregiver identified in the existing procedure as:

- A relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity; or
- The employee's current partner, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity, who shares the same household.

6. SSS Reimbursement

After completion of post maternity documents, the employer must submit the required documents to SSS for processing of the maternity-benefit reimbursement.

VII. Document Management and Control Requirements

This procedure is a Controlled Document and must be managed as the authoritative approved version.

The Document Owner is responsible for:

- Maintaining the accuracy and currency of the procedure.
- Ensuring required reviews and approvals are completed.
- Maintaining document metadata.
- Maintaining version history and approval evidence.
- Documenting the reason for changes.
- Establishing the next review date.

- Ensuring obsolete versions are appropriately retired or archived.
- Ensuring only the approved authoritative version is used operationally.

System of Record

The authoritative version of this internal HR procedure should be maintained in the approved SharePoint document library associated with the designated HR Team.

Copies stored on local desktops, in email attachments, chat conversations, or other temporary collaboration locations must not be treated as the authoritative version.

Access

Access must be limited according to role and legitimate business need and managed using approved access controls for the designated SharePoint location.
